

WRITER'S GUIDELINES

As you can see I have various articles that I have written on mywordswritten.org. The articles range in all lengths, but I would like to see articles in the future fewer than 2,000 words in length. These articles will only be nonfiction. No poetry, fiction, or devotions.

Payment: That's the bad news. I can't afford to pay anything. I will give you a credit line and an author profile at the end of the article including your website, blog, college or church. I can add a small portrait photo of you next to your author profile. You can use what you write for me as a clip to add to your portfolio. Publication with mywordswritten.org can help a new pastor or writer develop new platforms for promotion.

WRITING TIPS

Don't be afraid to use quotes. I like quotes. I want all your articles to have end notes or a bibliography. I want to know where you got your information. Use superscripted numbers to indicate a passage that could be doubted. Atheists and Agnostics will say prove it to me.

Query me first through e-mail with your article ideas. Address all queries to info@mywordswritten.org. When writing your article please use Microsoft Word. You can e-mail the file as a word doc.

Photos: If you have photographs, that would be great; mywordswritten.org can use photography. The big need is pictures of the Holy Lands. The photos that will be used on mywordswritten.org will be a 600 width jpeg at 72ppi. I can't afford to pay for photography either, but I will give you a credit line. If you are not sure of the size of photo or editing it, just send it to me, I'll handle all the details.
